DA awards 7M worth of agri interventions to CvSU

A total of P7 million worth of agricultural interventions to effectively implement the programs of the Department of Agriculture was awarded to Cavite State University through DA Secretary William D. Dar on 9 November 2021.

Of the said amount, P3million will be for the improvement of the tissue culture laboratory, P2million will be allotted for the establishment of foundation scion grove and the remaining will be for a four-wheel drive tractor.

Relative to this, DA-Agricultural Program Coordinating Officer Felix Joselito Noceda visited CvSU on 21 December 2021 to discuss with Dr. Hernando D. Robles and Dean Analita DM. Magsino of the College of Agriculture, Food Environment and Natural Resources the materials and/or equipment to be included for the tissue culture laboratory and foundation scion grove.

CvSU gets ISO 9001:2015 recertification

Cavite State University received on December 10, 2021 its ISO 9001:2015 recertification certificate from SOCOTEC Certification Philippines.

The recertification of the Quality Management System (QMS) is a proof of the University's commitment, through the leadership of Dr. Hernando D. Robles, to provide quality instruction, research, and extension services to all stakeholders.

The original date of certification of the QMS under the ISO 9001:2015 standard was on December 4, 2018. The current certification of the QMS is valid until December 3, 2024.

CvSU Vision

The premier university in historic Cavite recognized for excellence in the development of globally competitive and morally upright individuals

CvSU units participate in Barangayanihan and Health Caravan in Indang

Through the Local Government Unit (LGU) and Philippine National Police (PNP)-Indang, the Extension Services (ES), College of Criminal Justice (CCJ), College of Nursing (CoN), and Gender and Development Resource Center (GADRC) joined the "Barangayanihan Caravan towards National Recovery" held on 16th of December 2021.

Approximately 500 residents from Barangay Tambo Balagbag, Barangay Tambo Munting Kulit, Barangay Tambo Ilaya, Barangay Tambo Malaki, and Barangay Lumampong Halayhay benefitted from the caravan highlighted by dissemination of information about violence against women and children, Bawal Bastos Law, disaster preparedness, fire prevention and safety, and diabetes prevention. The group also distributed packs of rice and provided free blood pressure check-up.

Meanwhile, the Departments of Medical Technology and Midwifery of CoN facilitated free consultation, health counseling, and distribution of manuals and brochures on health, first aid, safety precautions during calamities, nutrition, and physical and mental health. Awareness on pregnancy, breastfeeding and family planning were also discussed by the Department of Midwifery while free urine analysis referrals were provided by the Department of Med Tech. It shall produce professional skilled and morally upright individuals for global competitiveness.

CvSU HRDO gets PRIME-HRM Maturity Level 2 certification

The Civil Service Commission (CSC) Regional Office IV virtually held its 2021 Program to Institutionalize Meritocracy and Excellence in Human Resource Management (PRIME-HRM) Recognition Rites today, December 15. One of the five honorees for two HR Systems is Cavite State University, for meeting the standards/indicators for PRIME-HRM Maturity Level 2 in Recruitment, Selection and Placement (RSP) and Performance Management based on the validated self-assessment and evidence requirements presented.

With the perseverance of CvSU Human Resource Development Office (HRDO), headed by Dr. Mary Jane D. Tepora, to elevate the institution's level of excellence for good governance and efficient public service, the University had undergone series of validations with the expert assistance of the CSC Regional Office IV for PRIME-HRM.

The CvSU PRIME-HRM journey all started on February 2020 with direct assistance from Civil Service Commission (CSC) Field Office. Throughout the year, various evidence requirements were submitted following the observations of CSC until all requirements were fulfilled in November 2021. Along the process, the University observes merit and fitness in the recruitment selection and placement of qualified and competent faculty members and staff. Through the collective efforts of all administrators and employees as measured using the CVSU Strategic Performance Management System, the University was able to provide various human resource interventions to achieve and sustain long term institutional goals.

In his recorded acceptance speech, Dr. Hernando D. Robles said that the recognition serves as proof of the University's relentless commitment to consistently deliver quality services and promote people excellence. He also acknowledged the dedication and collaborative efforts of the men and women behind CvSU's PRIME-HRM journey.

Together with Dr. Robles during the virtual recognition rites are VP for Academic Affairs Dr. Ma. Agnes P. Nuestro, Dr. Mary Jane D. Tepora, RSP Unit Head Dr. Florindo C. Ilagan, and Finance Management Office Director Ms. Lolita G. Herrera.

CvSU HRDO's Recruitment, Selection, and Placement Unit is headed by Dr. Florindo C. Ilagan while Prof. Quintin Subong heads the Performance Management Unit.

The PRIME-HRM aims to successfully transform the agencies' HRM systems, competencies and practices to elevate public sector human resource to a level of excellence for good governance, and efficient and effective public service delivery. (MJDTepora & FCIlagan)
