SciCAT AVENUES project holds inception meeting

The Phase 2 of the Science for the Convergence of Agriculture and Tourism (SciCAT) project funded by the Department of Science and Technology - Philippine Council for Agriculture, Aquatic and Natural Resources Research and Development (DOST-PCAARRD) held an inception meeting on 22 January via Zoom.

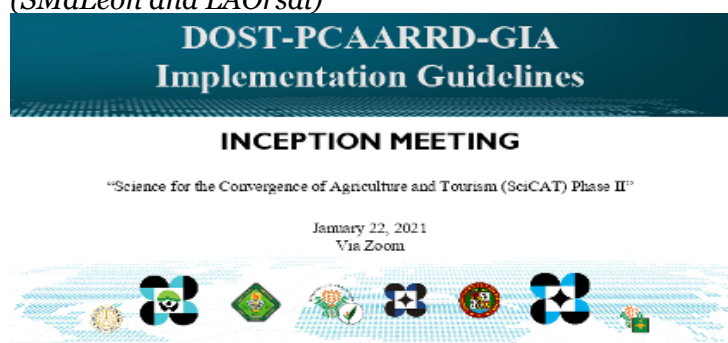

SciCAT AVENUES or “Access to Value-adding and Engaging iNnovations towards sUstainability of agri-Education and agri-touriSm”, with an approved grant of Php4,999,507.20 has officially commenced on 01 January. The said project is an upgrade of the previously approved funded-project “Transforming Silan’s Farm in Indang, Cavite into Science for the Convergence of Agriculture and Tourism” which is being implemented by the university in partnership with Silan Agri Farm in Tambo Kulit, Indang, Cavite.

From serving as a pathway in Phase I, this Phase II project aims to provide more avenues to further the advocacy of not only imparting technology in the community but in creating a more sustainable ecosystem where both technology and nature thrive as reflected in the term “avenues”. Activities include trainings in relation to technologies relevant in enhancing farm productivity, development of IEC materials to promote science and agri-tourism and other means of technical assistance to partner site and other interested farmers or farm workers.

The project is led by Dr. Lilibeth P. Novicio with the following Project Team members: Dr. Yolanda A. Ilagan, Project Staff, Dr. Pia Rhoda P. Lucero, Project Staff, Ms.

Lady Aileen A. Orsal, Project Staff, Ms. Bernadette S. Amparo, Project Support Staff, Ms. Roselle G. Esguerra, Project Support Staff, and Ms. Sheena Mae L. de Leon, Project Assistant. Moreover, the project is being conducted with the help of Mr. Edilberto Silan, Magsasaka-Siyentista and Ms. Shirley D. Silan and Ms. Sheila Elaine Silan, farm owner and manager of the partner site.

During the meeting, Mr. Noel A. Catibog, Technology Transfer and Promotion Division (TTPD) Director, appreciated the utmost support of the University in the project. Also present were the following officials and representatives: Dr. Hernando D. Robles, President, Dr. Melbourne R. Talactac, Vice President for Research and Extension, Dir. Edna L. Mojica, Director for Administration, Dir. Lolita G. Herrera, Director for Finance Management Office, Engr. Rosalie A. Pelle, Supply Officer, and Ms. Marcelina M. Masicap, Internal Audit Representative. (SMdLeon and LAOrsal)

PPS in action

Talactac joins CvSU executive council

Dr. Melbourne R. Talactac, former dean of the College of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, has been appointed as the new Vice President for Research and Extension of Cavite State University effective 17 January 2021. Dr. Talactac succeeds Dr. Ruel M. Mojica. They held a simple turnover of responsibilities on 13 January.

The new VP vows to sustain, if not surpass, what the University has achieved in the last four years and is looking forward to further support and empower the faculty, staff, students, and all stakeholders in harnessing opportunities in Research and Extension.

GADRC conducts strategic planning

GAD Reports

Dr. Susan G. Tan, new GADRC director, sat down with the center's staff on 28 January to discuss plans, activities, and budget for the year.

Ms. Raecel A. Estebat, In-Charge of Planning, Monitoring, and Evaluation presented the GAD plan and budget of the university. She further discussed the list of activities to be conducted for this year.

A GAD-related national theme was identified for each month of the year and activities were plotted out. The respective college/campus that can be tapped as partners in conducting the said activities were also identified.

The group also agreed that the Center's regular monthly meeting will be every last Thursday of the month while the GAD Technical Working Group meeting will be every last month of every quarter.

CAS-DLMC partners with DILG on community resilience and disaster preparedness

With the aim of creating disaster preparedness communication materials for local government units, the Department of Languages and Mass Communication of the College of Arts and Sciences recently partnered with the Department of Interior and Local Government Region IV-A.

As an offshoot of the collaboration, journalism faculty members held a series of workshops with the officials and selected community members of Brgy. Panapaan V in Bacoar and Brgy. Medicion II-D in Imus, Cavite. During the workshops, barangay officials shared their disaster risk reduction and management plans while faculty members gave insights on how to better communicate these plans to their constituents through social media.

The project is headed by Ms. Charmaine Lopez and coordinated with Dean of College of Arts and Sciences Dr. Bettina Joyce Ilagan, and Extension Coordinator for BA Journalism Ms. Kimmi Dane Jimenez.

Agri students conduct webinar series

With the theme, "Application of Agricultural Technology Among Public Workers for Public Safety", the third year BS Agriculture students of the College of Agriculture, Food, Environment, and Natural Resources conducted two webinars via Google Meet platform on 14 and 18 January.

In the first webinar, Ms. Ivy Rose D. Faigane, Agriculturist II of the Municipality of Magallanes, Cavite delivered a lecture on good agricultural practices. This was attended by 56 participants from the College of Agriculture, Food, Environment, and Natural Resources (CAFENR).

Meanwhile, the second webinar focused on pesticide application using drones. Mr. Justin Paolo M. Laserna, the general manager of AgriSerna Tech Solutions Inc. discussed drone technology and the future with agricultural technology. This was followed by the talk of Mr. Joel L. Laserna, president of Philippine Farm Fix Solution, Inc. on the essential characteristics of a millennial agriculturists. At the end of the talk, several participants expressed their interest on the use of drones for agricultural applications. A total of 174 registered in the event who were students, farmers, entrepreneurs, teachers, agricultural engineers, agriculturist, and employees from Luzon and Mindanao. (RJDucusin)
